CHICAGO, Sept. 25,-As evidence in a case of assault and battery in Judge Foster's court, a contract was produced King met Reuter on South Clark street were arrested. Reuter pleaded selfdefense, and then King explained how the trouble came about.

He said he sold his wife to Reuter for $10 months ago, and that the pair had since lived together. After trying single life again, King said he concluded that Reuter had not paid enough for his spouse, but Reuter refused to pay over more money. King said he struck him in a fit of indignation. Reuter denied the transaction. The other man then produced a thumb-marked contract, in which the transfer was made and the sum was stated, with Reuter's signature attached.

Justice Foster had the fellow write his name, and the signatures were identical. The Magestrate fined the fickie husband $75 and costs.
